

Dublin Chapter Newsletter

January 2016

This issue is a slim one - think of it as a lite-newsletter. Apologies for this but everyone is very busy over the festive season, and our New Year meeting follows close behind it.

Who was winning 10 years ago?

Chapter Challenge - 2016

A call for people to volunteer to help produce pieces for this 2016 event which will be judged in time for the National Seminar. The 2016 Chapter Challenge is a chess set. If you want to participate make yourself known to a member of the committee.

A Few Things in Wood

One more payment and it's mine!

Hidden in Plain Sight?

A must-have for the security-minded : a pile-of-wood chest of drawers.

Fascinating facts about trees in Ireland

"An Irish Law of the 8th century set out penalties for damaging privately owned trees. Penalties included the payment of cows for cutting down an Oak tree: the payment of a sheep for cutting a branch from a Hawthorn."
